

Fairtrade and the Climate Emergency

Unlearning what Fairtrade means in order to save the planet

Thursday 20th February, 7–9pm
The Environment Centre, Swansea

A conversation with Robin Roth
CEO of Traidcraft

“What we really need are fairly traded earthworms”

Traidcraft is a UK-based Fairtrade organisation, established in 1979 and Robin has been head of the company for just over three years.

He will share his thoughts on how trade and development relate to the environmental and social challenges the world is facing.

Followed by discussion and an opportunity to try and buy a range of Fairtrade products.
